TO HAIFA: The best way to get to Haifa from the airport or the Tel Aviv area is by train.

ISRAEL RAILWAYS LINK
http://www.rail.co.il/EN/Pages/HomePage.aspx

Get off at Hof HaCarmel station.

TO THE UNIVERSITY: From the train station, take a taxi to the university (always ask taxi drivers to use the meter (monE), or walk over to the Bus Station (same place) and take bus 46 to the university.

The Nof and most other hotels are in the Central Carmel area. Buses (and public taxi/van ‘sherUT’) to the university from the Central Carmel: 30, 37a, 191, 192. Or share a taxi. Always ask taxi drivers to use the meter (monE).

If you’re coming by car, take the exit from the Beach Road toward the university, wind your way up Freud Road to the T, and then take a right onto Horev Street, and keep following it (it changes to Aba Khoushi Street) all the way to the university. Limited parking is available to the right of the campus in the Ya’arot HaCarmel (Carmel Park) lot.